I. Taxation of Costs by the Clerk

A. Background

This guide has been prepared to assist parties in the preparation of applications for costs in this district. The procedure for taxing costs under Fed. R. Civ. P. 54\(d\) and the clerk's authority to tax costs vary widely between district courts. The clerk's office encourages parties to review this guide thoroughly and consult all applicable law when preparing an application for costs in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina.

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1920 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 54\(d\), a prevailing party¹ may request the clerk to tax allowable costs in a civil action as part of a judgment or decree.² The prevailing party begins this process by filing an application for costs.

In this court, the clerk ordinarily taxes costs in the first instance.³ The clerk's discretion to award costs, however, is limited. The clerk must deny costs not permitted by statute or case law, even if the opposing party has failed to file an objection to taxation.

The clerk's authority to tax costs does not include any equitable authority.⁴ Accordingly, the clerk cannot deny costs based on undue hardship, difficulty to the taxed party, or other equitable considerations. If a party believes equitable considerations counsel against awarding of the costs, the party should move for review after the clerk enters an order taxing costs.

¹ "A 'prevailing party' is 'a party in whose favor a judgment is rendered' or 'one who has been awarded some relief by the court.'" Silicon Knights, Inc. v. Epic Games, Inc., 917 F. Supp. 2d 503, 509 (E.D.N.C. 2012) (quoting Buckhannon Bd. & Care Home, Inc. v. W. Va. Dep't of Health & Human Servs., 532 U.S. 598, 602 (2001)).

² Under Rule 54(d)(1), there is a "presumption that costs are to be awarded to a prevailing party" Cherry v. Champion, Int'l Corp., 186 F.3d 442, 446 (4th Cir. 1999), and therefore "it is incumbent upon the unsuccessful party to show circumstances sufficient overcome the presumption favoring an award of costs to the prevailing party." Ellis v. Grant Thornton LLP, No. 10-1509, 434 F. App'x 232, 235, 2011 WL 2356855, at * 2 (4th Cir. 2011) (per curiam) (citing Teague v. Bakker, 35 F.3d 978, 996 (4th Cir. 1994)).

³ Shipman v. United Parcel Service, Inc., No. 5:12-CV-589-F, 2015 WL 3407437, at *1 (E.D.N.C. May 26, 2015) (explaining that under Rule 54 the clerk taxes costs, and a party may seek review of the clerk's ruling by filing a timely motion); Local Civil Rule 54.1(a) (providing that a prevailing party may request the clerk to tax allowable costs).

⁴ Taniguchi v. Kan Pacific Saipan, Ltd., ___ U.S. ___, 132 S. Ct. 1997, 2006 (2012) (describing the taxation of costs by the clerk as a "clerical matter").

B. What to File

1. Bill of Costs form (AO 133) and required supporting documentation.

Supporting documentation includes materials—such as copies of vouchers, bills and canceled checks—clearly showing the amount of costs and their purpose. Where appropriate, the Guidelines explain what materials must be submitted.

Note: The Bill of Costs form is available here and in the clerk's office.

2. Affidavit and supporting memorandum

The affidavit should verify (a) the items claimed in the bill of costs are correct, (b) the costs have been necessarily incurred in the case, and (c) the services for which fees have been charged were actually and necessarily performed.

The supporting memorandum should explain the “grounds and authorities” supporting each request. For example, a request for the cost of a deposition should be supported by both a reference to 28 U.S.C. § 1920\(2\) and an explanation of why that particular deposition was necessary to the case.

Note: An affidavit and supporting memorandum are not required when the prevailing party seeks only the court's filing fee.

3. Certificate of Service

C. When to File

1. Trial Costs

Unless otherwise ordered, an application for costs and supporting materials must be filed within 14 days of the entry of judgment. See Local Civil Rule 54.1.

2. Appellate costs.

An application for costs including costs incurred on appeal and taxable in this court should be filed within 14 days of the issuance of the mandate of the Court of Appeals or, in the event of review by the Supreme Court, within 14 days of the entry of judgment by the Supreme Court.

Note: Non-compliance with these time limits constitutes a waiver of costs. See Local Civil Rule 54.1\(a\)\(3\).

D. When to File an Objection

The opposing party must file any motion for disallowance of costs with a supporting memorandum within 14 days of service of the application for costs. See Local Civil Rule 54.1\(b\)\(1\).

The prevailing party must file any response within 7 days of service of the motion for disallowance. See Local Civil Rule 54.1\(b\)\(2\).

Note: Even if an opposing party does not file an objection, the clerk nevertheless will review the application for costs and deny any requested costs that are not permitted under 28 U.S.C. § 1920 and applicable case law.

E. Cases Involving Multiple Parties

In cases involving more than a single plaintiff or more than a single defendant, the clerk will not award the same cost more than once.

Generally, where the same counsel represents multiple prevailing parties or multiple losing parties, it is assumed that the parties may be treated as a single party for purposes of taxing costs. If this is not that situation, a party must provide an explanation as to why and how the parties should be treated differently.

Where different counsel represent multiple prevailing parties or multiple losing parties, the clerk assumes that they should be treated as separate parties for purposes of taxing costs. In this situation, the party filing the application for costs or the opposing party should provide an explanation as to which costs are attributable to each party and how they should be apportioned.

Note: If there are multiple parties involved and an insufficient explanation is provided as to how to apportion costs, the clerk may deny all costs and the party may file a motion with the presiding judge to review the clerk's decision.

F. Procedures After Filing the Application for Costs

After receiving the application for costs, and after the time has expired for filing any motions for disallowance and/or responses thereto, the clerk, or her designee, will apply the Guidelines and tax costs. Unless otherwise ordered by the clerk, the ruling will be made on the record without a hearing.

1. Effect of a Pending Post-Judgment Motion

Regardless of whether any party files a motion for disallowance, if a party files a post-judgment motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 50(b), 52(b), or 59, the clerk will—without additional notice—defer consideration of any pending application for costs until after the court rules on the post-judgment motion. The filing of a post-judgment motion, however, does not relieve a party from filing a timely motion for disallowance under Local Civil Rule 54.1\(b\). Assuming the judgment remains in effect after the court rules on the post-judgment motion, the clerk may then tax costs without additional notice or hearing.

2. Effect of a Pending Appeal

Absent a filed opposition, the clerk may tax trial costs regardless of whether an appeal is pending in the case. However, if a party files a timely motion for disallowance of costs either before or after any party files an appeal from the judgment serving as the basis for the application for costs, the clerk will typically deny taxation without prejudice to the prevailing party filing a new application for costs if judgment is affirmed on appeal.

Note: When the interests of justice so require or when the issue of taxation requires a factual determination, the clerk will forward an application for costs to the assigned judge for resolution of taxation issues.

G. Procedures After Costs are Taxed by the Clerk

1. Motion to Review the Clerk's Order Taxing Costs

Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(d)(1), a party may move for review of the clerk's taxation of costs within 7 days of taxation.

2. Payment for Costs

Once the court has ruled on a motion for review or after the time for seeking review has expired, the amount of the cost judgment should be paid directly to the prevailing party.

A taxed party must file a satisfaction of judgment once the cost judgment is satisfied.

Note: Costs are not processed through the clerk's office.

II. Taxable Costs

A. Background

Only those costs specifically enumerated in 28 U.S.C. § 1920 are taxable.⁵ The clerk will deny all other requested costs, even if the opposing party has failed to file a motion for disallowance.

Prevailing parties are responsible for providing the required documentation to support their applications for costs, and must explain how the documents support each requested item.

The clerk will deny costs submitted without documentation or with an unclear explanation in the supporting memorandum.

Note 1: Certain costs that are not taxable under 28 U.S.C. § 1920 may be taxable in a motion for attorney's fees.

Note 2: The clerk will not deny costs solely for a lack of a supporting memorandum; however, the lack of a memorandum or supporting documentation will result in a denial of any unexplained costs.

B. Fees of the Clerk, 28 U.S.C. § 1920(1)

The following fees of the clerk are taxable:

1. Filing fee for a complaint, removal, or habeas corpus petition filed in federal court, as well as any administrative fee assessed at the time of filing and required pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1914(b).
2. Appellate fees pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 39(e).

Note: Supporting documentation is not needed for fees paid to the clerk of this court.

⁵ Country Vintner of North Carolina, LLC v. E. & J. Gallo Winery, Inc., No. 5:09-CV-326-BR, 2012 WL 3202677, at *1 (E.D.N.C. Aug. 3, 2012), aff'd, 718 F.3d 249 (4th Cir. 2013).

C. Fees of the Marshal, 28 U.S.C. § 1920(1)

Fees of the marshal may be taxed. Fees for private process servers may be taxed only to the extent that they do not exceed the costs that would have been incurred had the marshal's office effected service.⁶

Note: Generally the clerk will tax reasonable service fees for (a) summonses, (b) trial subpoenas for witnesses who actually testified at trial, (c) deposition subpoenas where the cost of the deposition has also been taxed, and (d) subpoenas for materials submitted at trial or in support of a motion terminating the case. Absent good cause shown or prior court approval, the clerk will not tax charges related to expedited service.

D. Fees for Printed and Electronically Recorded Transcripts Necessarily Obtained for Use in the Case, 28 U.S.C. § 1920(2)

1. Taxable

To be taxable, a transcript cost, including copies of transcripts, must be "necessarily obtained for use in the case," 28 U.S.C. § 1920(2), and "reasonably necessary at the time of its taking," LaVay Corp. v. Dominion Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n, 830 F.2d 522, 528 (4th Cir. 1987).⁷ The following fees of the court reporter are taxable. Requests for taxation must include, in addition to the documentation listed in Documentation Requirements for Transcript costs, the following documentation and information stated in each category:

⁶ See Arista Records LLC v. Gaines, 635 F. Supp. 2d 414, 418-19 (E.D.N.C. 2009) ("In making the fees of the Marshal taxable as costs in 28 U.S.C. § 1920, Congress exhibited an intent to make service of process a taxable item."); see also U.S. E.E.O.C. v. W&O, Inc., 213 F.3d 600, 624 (11th Cir. 2000) (quoting Collins v. Gorman, 96 F.3d 1057, 1060 (7th Cir. 1996)) (finding persuasive "the reasoning that § 1920(1) 'refers to the fees 'of' the marshal but does not require payment 'to' the marshal' and, accordingly, that the 'fees of the marshal' refers to fees authorized by § 1921, rather than fees collected by the marshal").

⁷ "It is not necessary for depositions to be used in trial or dispositive motion briefing for a party to recover those costs [under §1920(2)]." Ray Commc'ns, Inc. v. Clear Channel Commc'ns, No. 2:08-CV-24-BO, 2011 WL 3207805, at *3 (E.D.N.C. July 26, 2011); cf. Country Vintner of N.C., LLC v. E.&J. Gallo Winery, Inc., 718 F.3d 249, 257-58 (4th Cir. 2013) (explaining that the phrase "necessarily obtained for use in the case" in § 1920(4) did not preclude taxation of materials obtained for use in discovery or for trial preparation).

- a. Transcript procured at the direction of the court.
 - ❖ Attach the order.
- b. Transcript prepared under the stipulation of parties to tax as costs.
 - ❖ Include the stipulation.
- c. Transcript of deposition of a party to the case.
- d. Transcript of deposition of person who testified at trial.
 - ❖ Note the date(s) the person testified at trial.
- e. Transcript admitted into evidence or used at trial to impeach a witness or witnesses.⁸
 - ❖ Note the date(s) the transcript was read into the record.
- f. Transcript used in support of a motion.
 - ❖ Note the title and docket entry number of the motion.
- g. Electronic media depositions used at trial, such as a videotape, DVD, or audio recording.⁹
 - ❖ Note the date(s) the deposition was presented into the record.
- h. Court reporter fees for attendance and travel for depositions.
- i. Transcript ordered for purposes of appeal.

⁸ See Herold v. Hajoca Corp., 864 F. 2d 317, 319 (4th Cir. 1988) (explaining that depositions that were used to impeach witnesses, although not introduced as evidence, were used at trial within the meaning of § 1920(2)).

⁹ A party may recover the costs of both stenographic transcription of a deposition and videographer services provided that the party shows that both costs were “necessarily obtained for use in the case.” See Cherry v. Champion Int’l Corp., 186 F.3d 442, 449 (4th Cir. 1999). Where a party notices a deposition to be recorded by both electronic and stenographic means, and the other party raises no objection at that time, the court will award the costs of both recordings. See Silicon Knights, Inc. v. Epic Games, Inc., 917 F. Supp. 2d 503, 511 (E.D.N.C. 2012) (awarding the prevailing party costs of both audiovisual videotaping and stenographic transcription of depositions where the other party failed to object after receiving notice that both methods of recording would be used and where the court found “that transcribing and videotaping the depositions were ‘necessarily obtained for use in the case’”).

- j. Cost of copies of an opposing party's noticed depositions.

Note 1: Only the cost of one transcript is taxable if the transcript is otherwise taxable under categories a-j. See Local Civil Rule 54.1(c)(2)(B).

Note 2: The clerk may tax the costs of both an electronic media deposition and the printed deposition transcript provided the prevailing party explains why both were necessary for use in this case. Where a party notices a deposition to be recorded by both electronic and stenographic means, and the other party raises no objection at that time, the court will award the costs of both recordings. Accordingly, a party seeking costs for both an electronic and stenographic recording of a deposition should attach the notice of deposition. Where a party fails to attach the notice of deposition, the clerk will tax the cost of the printed deposition over the cost of an electronic media deposition.

Note 3: Absent a motion for disallowance in opposition, the clerk will tax the actual rate charged by the court reporter.

2. Not Taxable

The following fees of the court reporter are not taxable:

- a. Costs of daily or expedited copy produced solely for the convenience of counsel, absent prior court approval.¹⁰
- b. ASCII diskettes for copies of deposition transcripts.¹¹
- c. Long-distance phone charges for telephonic depositions, or costs incurred in teleconferencing a deposition.
- d. Attorney's fees and expenses incurred while taking the deposition, including attorney travel expenses.
- e. Court reporter postage, shipping/handling, or delivery charges for a transcript.

¹⁰ See Local Civil Rule 54.1(c)(2)(C); see also Fulmore v. United Parcel Service, 7:11-CV-18-F, 2013 WL 5969715, at *1 (E.D.N.C. Nov. 18, 2013) (disallowing costs for expedited transcript).

¹¹ See Boykin Anchor Co., Inc. v. AT&T Corp., No. 5:10-CV-591-FL, 2014 WL 4798726, at *2 (E.D.N.C. Sept. 26, 2014) (disallowing costs for ASCII diskettes).

- f. Copies of deposition exhibits obtained at depositions.¹²
 - g. “Read and sign” charges.¹³
 - h. Litigation support packages.¹⁴
3. Documentation Requirements for Transcript Costs

Any request for transcript costs must include itemized invoices indicating:

- a. The party being deposed;
- b. The date of the deposition;
- c. The number of pages in the transcript;
- d. The per page rate; and
- e. The total cost.

E. Fees and Disbursements for Printing, 28 U.S.C. § 1920(3)

These fees are typically taxed by the court of appeals in its mandate.

F. Witness Fees, 28 U.S.C. § 1920(3)

1. Taxable

The allowable witnesses fees are set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1821. Requests for taxation of the following categories of witness fees must include the noted additional documentation or information:

- a. Statutory Attendance Fee, 28 U.S.C. § 1821(b). Witnesses are entitled to $40.00 per day of testimony. This includes days during which the witness was deposed, days reasonably spent in attendance at trial waiting to be called, and the time the witness was has also denied fees for copies of deposition exhibits, read and sign, rough drafts, litigation support packages, ASCII disks, shipping, handling and expedited processing.”).

¹³ See Dutton v. Wal-Mart Stores East, L.P., No. 4:11-CV-94-BO, 2015 WL 1643025, at *2 (E.D.N.C. March 13, 2015).

“necessarily occupied in going to and returning from the place of attendance at the beginning and end of such attendance.” 28 U.S.C. § 1821(b).¹⁵

➤ Provide the name of the witness and date(s) of attendance.

- b. Mileage, 28 U.S.C. § 1821(c)(2). Mileage must be calculated at the rate for official government travel in effect at the time the travel took place as set by the General Services Administration. Visit www.gsa.gov/mileage.

➤ Provide the name of witnesses, the date(s) of travel and the applicable mileage rate.

- c. Subsistence, 28 U.S.C. § 1821(d)(1). A subsistence allowance may be paid to a witness “when an overnight stay is required at the place of attendance because such a place is so far removed from the residence of such witness as to prohibit return thereto from day to day.” 28 U.S.C. § 1821(d)(1). The subsistence allowance may not exceed the maximum per diem allowance for official government travel in effect at the time the stay took place as set by the General Services Administration. Id. § 1821(d)(2). Visit www.gsa.gov/perdiem for the current and historical subsistence per diem allowances by geographic area.

➤ Provide the name of the witness, an explanation of why an overnight stay was required, receipts for relevant expenses, and the applicable per diem rate.

- d. Common carrier, 28 U.S.C. § 1821(c)(1). The actual expenses of travel by common carrier must be substantiated by a receipt or other evidence of cost.

➤ Provide the name of the witness, the date(s) of travel, and the receipt from the common carrier.

- e. Other travel expenses, 28 U.S.C. § 1821(c)(3). “Toll charges for toll roads, bridges, tunnels, and ferries, taxicab fares between places of lodging and carrier terminals, and parking fees (upon presentation of a valid parking receipt)” may be taxed.

¹⁵ See Mercer v. N. Carolina Dep't of Transp., No. 5:09-CV-379-FL, 2012 WL 3996844, at *2 (E.D.N.C. Sept. 7, 2012) (observing that “[u]nder 28 U.S.C. § 1821(a)(1), a witness may be paid for attendance at court or for a deposition”).

- Provide the name of the witness, the date(s) of travel, and the receipt for travel expenses.

2. Non-Taxable

The following witness fees are not taxable.

- a. Fees and expenses for individual parties, real parties in interest, parties suing in representative capacities, and the officers and directors of corporate parties.¹⁶
- b. Fees paid to any witness, including expert witnesses, beyond the statutory daily attendance fee.¹⁷
- c. Fees and expenses to deponents when the cost of the deposition is not taxed by the clerk.
- d. Witness expenses for rental vehicles.

G. Fees for Exemplification, 28 U.S.C. § 1920(4)

Exemplification costs typically include the costs for producing a demonstrative aid as an exhibit.¹⁸ Requests for taxation of the costs of producing a demonstrative aid must include an itemized invoice and an explanation of the purpose and use of the demonstrative aid(s).

¹⁶ Local Civil Rule 54.1(c)(2)(a).

¹⁷ See Crawford Fitting Co. v. J.T. Gibbons, Inc., 482 U.S. 437, 439 (1987) (“[W]hen a prevailing party seeks reimbursement for fees paid to its own expert witnesses, a federal court is bound by the limit of § 1821(b), absent contract or explicit statutory authority to the contrary.”); see also Silicon Knights, Inc. v. Epic Games, Inc., 917 F. Supp. 2d 503, 522 (E.D.N.C. 2012) (“Expert witness fees . . . are typically limited under 28 U.S.C. § 1821 to ‘an attendance fee of $40 per day for each day’s attendance.’”).

¹⁸ Circuit courts of appeal have disagreed on the definition of “exemplification.” The Federal Circuit, applying Sixth Circuit law, defined “exemplification” by the definition set forth in Black’s Law Dictionary: “an official transcript of a public record, authenticated as a true copy for use as evidence.” Kohus v. Cosco, Inc., 282 F.3d 1355, 1358-59 (Fed. Cir. 2002). The Seventh Circuit has construed “exemplification” as meaning “the act of illustration by example,” which includes exhibits and demonstrative aids. Cefalu v. Village of Elk Grove, 211 F.3d 416, 427 (7th Cir. 2000). Courts in this district generally have adopted the latter view. See, e.g., Silicon Knights, Inc. v. Epic Games, Inc., 917 F. Supp. 2d 503, 514 (E.D.N.C. 2012) (allowing the prevailing party’s costs for producing four demonstrative exhibits used in closing arguments). The Fourth Circuit has yet to reach the issue. Country Vintner of N.C., LLC v. E.&J. Gallo Winery, Inc., 718 F.3d 249, 262 (4th Cir. 2013).

H. Costs of Making Copies of Any Materials Where the Copies are Necessarily Obtained for Use in the Case, 28 U.S.C. § 1920(4)

1. Taxable

Copies are taxable if they were “necessarily obtained for use in the case,” 28 U.S.C. § 1920(4).¹⁹ The following copy fees are taxable. Requests for taxation must include, in addition to the documentation listed in Documentation Requirements for Transcript costs, the following documentation and information stated in each category.

- a. Copies directed by the court.
- b. Exhibits that were conventionally filed with the clerk.
 - Note the name of the exhibit(s) and associated docket number(s).
- c. Any courtesy copies required to be provided to the presiding judge under that judge’s practice preferences in effect at the time the copies were provided.
 - Note the name of the document(s) and associated docket number.
- d. Documents that cannot be filed in CM/ECF that were required to be served on the opposing party.
 - Note the name of the document(s) and the date(s) of filing.
- e. Documents that were required to be served on the opposing party and were conventionally served on the opposing party because the party did not have a CM/ECF account.
 - Note the name of the document(s) and associated docket number(s).

¹⁹ Section 1920(4) applies not only to costs related to materials attached to dispositive motions or produced at trial, but also to costs related to copies in discovery. See Country Vintner of N.C., LLC v. E.&J. Gallo Winery, Inc., 718 F.3d 249, 257-58 (4th Cir. 2013) (explaining that the phrase “necessarily obtained for use in the case” in § 1920(4) did not preclude taxation of materials obtained for use in discovery or for trial preparation).

- f. Expenses for producing electronically stored information, limited to converting electronic files to non-editable formats and burning the files onto discs.²⁰
- g. Other copies that were necessarily obtained for use in the case provided that the requesting party provides an explanation as to why the copies were necessarily obtained.

2. Non-Taxable

The following copy costs are not taxable.

- a. Copies retained by counsel for counsel's use.²¹
- b. Copies provided to clients.

3. Documentation Requirements for Copy Costs

Any invoice or bill must clearly indicate (or be attached to a document explaining) the following:

- a. The document copied, including the docket number;
- b. The number of pages in the document;
- c. The number of copies made;
- d. The per page rate; and
- e. The total cost

Note 1: For in-house copies, billing records may be submitted.
