STANDING ORDER

In accordance with the Guide to Judiciary Policy, Volume 4, Chapter 6, it is hereby ordered:

1. This order supersedes the October 1, 2010 Order Adopting Guidelines for the Collection and Expenditure of Non-Appropriated Funds.
2. The fee for admission to the Bar of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina shall be comprised of: (1) the first-time attorney admission fee set by the Judicial Conference pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1914, and (2) an additional $30.00. The portion constituting the fee set by the Judicial Conference shall continue to be deposited into the Treasury of the United States by the Clerk. The additional $30.00 shall be maintained locally as a non-appropriated fund for the court for the purposes approved by the Judicial Conference.
3. The Clerk of Court shall be custodian for the fund. He or she shall submit to the court annually a detailed accounting of the receipts and expenditures by the fund during the preceding calendar year.
4. An advisory committee of six persons including members of the Bar will be appointed to suggest appropriate uses of the fund and to approve expenditures on a regular basis. Expenditures related to attorney disciplinary proceedings shall be referred to the Chief Judge for approval and will not be submitted to the advisory committee.

5. The Clerk is directed to manage the fund in compliance with the guidelines contained in the Guide to Judiciary Policy, Volume 4, Chapter 6.
6. The Chief Judge or his or her designee shall approve all expenditures of the non-appropriated fund.
7. The Clerk is directed to post and maintain this Order on the court's website.

SO ORDERED. This the 2 day of December, 2016.

JAMES C. DEVER III
Chief United States District Judge
