

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

Full-time Summer Law Student Intern
(Unpaid Position)

Location: Wilmington, NC

The U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina is accepting letters of interest from current law school students interested in a summer 2016 judicial internship in the chambers of United States Magistrate Judge Robert B. Jones, Jr. The judicial intern assists with clerical/administrative duties within chambers and works with law clerks in areas of researching issues of law and attending court proceedings. There is daily interaction with the judicial officer and law clerks concerning legal and court-related issues. The duration of the internship is a minimum of six weeks.

This position is a gratuitous service appointment. Claim or right to receive salary or other compensation in consideration for the performance of assigned duties is waived. As a volunteer in the service of the U.S. Government, no personal copyright privileges in any work product prepared in the course of service is allowed. Information obtained or to which the intern has access in the course of voluntary service is often of a confidential nature and preservation of confidentiality is required. Interns will be responsible for their own expenses.

Qualifications:

Applicant must be currently enrolled in a Juris Doctorate program and must have completed two full years when the internship begins. Applicants must be able to commit a minimum of six weeks to the internship.

Conditions of Employment:

Applicants must be United States citizens or lawful permanent residents actively seeking citizenship. As a condition of employment or gratuitous service to the U.S. Courts, the selected candidate must successfully complete a background check and retention in the position will depend upon a favorable suitability determination.

Application Procedures:

All interested persons should submit resume and letter of interest by March 4, 2016 to Judge-Jones_NCED@nced.uscourts.gov.
