WAIVER OF DETENTION HEARING

I understand that the United States has requested that I be detained pending the outcome of my case. After consulting with my attorney, I hereby waive my right to a detention hearing and my right to be present in court to personally waive my right to the hearing.

I acknowledge the following:

1. I understand that I have the right to a detention hearing to determine whether I should be held in custody pending the outcome of my case.
 2. I understand that at the detention hearing, I would have the right to be represented by counsel, hear and challenge the government's evidence, and present my own evidence (by proffer or otherwise).
 3. I understand that by waiving the detention hearing, the hearing will not be held and the court will order that I be held in custody pending the outcome of my case.
 4. I have discussed my decision to waive my detention hearing and the consequences of that decision with my attorney prior to executing this waiver.
- The Defendant is currently in the custody of state, federal, or local authorities because of charges or a conviction in another case.
