

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN RE:)
)
RALEIGH FEDERAL BUILDING) SECURITY)

ORDER

In order to consolidate this court's order of May 4, 1998, and this court's order of November 14, 2005, the court issues the following order. This order supercedes the orders of May 4, 1998, and November 14, 2005.

The court, having considered the security needs and convenience and safety of persons employed by the Eastern District of North Carolina and working in the Terry Sanford Federal Building and Courthouse at 310 New Bern Avenue, Raleigh, hereby makes the following order with respect to ingress and egress by court employees to the building.

Court personnel, including those employed by the Clerk's Office of the Eastern District of North Carolina, Probation Office, together with employees of the U.S. Marshal's Service, are allowed ingress and egress through the rear loading dock entrance. The general public and unaccompanied visitors shall not be allowed access through this entrance except under emergency circumstances or under such exigent circumstances as prudence and sound judgment may require on the part of the Court Security Officer then in charge.

SO ORDERED. This the 21 day of November 2005.

LOUISE W. FLANAGAN
CHIEF UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE